

Quentin Rance ASID CID FCSD – President of Quentin Rance Enterprises Inc. is an International Interior Designer working successfully with clients from around the world. His designing, both in Residential and Commercial, have brought him many accolades since he began practicing. He is a Professional Member of the American Society of Interior Designers (ASID), A California Certified Interior Designer (CID) and a Fellow of the Chartered Society of Designers (FCSD) U.K.

Whether working in traditional, classical, transitional or contemporary designs, he has shown the ability to bring out his clients' wishes and translate them into the interiors that fulfill their total requirements and desires. In doing so, he has still brought out the excitement one would expect from a designer of his creativity and experience.

Commercial contracts have included Shell International, Bechtel International, Philippine Airlines, The Canadian Embassy, the Ugandan High Commission and Metro Goldwyn Mayer.

Residential contracts have been carried out in a number of European countries, including several of the Greek Islands, Switzerland, the South of France, Ireland and England. He has also worked on projects in Kuwait, Nigeria and Uganda and completed the interior and the furnishing of a 147 foot (45 meters) ocean going yacht.

Quentin has also been on a number of HGTV "Designers Challenge" shows which were highly successful episodes. These television shows are aired internationally.

Recent California contracts have included a magnificent Tudor residence in the Pacific Palisades, a stunning Southwestern style home in Bel Air, a dramatic contemporary apartment in Westwood along with exclusive homes in Beverly Hills, Santa Monica, Newport Beach, Palm Springs and Palm Desert.

Other projects include the remodeling of a lakeside home in Lake Arrowhead, in the style of a Swiss Chalet, and a baronial hilltop mansion in Calabasas in a romantic French Louis XV style.

Quentin Rance ASID CID FCSD began his career in Interior Design when he entered into a five year apprenticeship in Southern England with an extremely well respected design company.

The five years were directed to set periods of time with the Cabinet, Drapery and Carpet workshops. All of this was coordinated with the company's Design Studio, which included specified days for Art School.

This thorough grounding in the basics of Interior Design has proved many times over to be of tremendous help in evaluating contracts and dealing with them in a professional manner.

Before Quentin established his company in Los Angeles in 1982, he ran his own highly successful Interior Design practice in London for many years.

When Quentin established Quentin Rance Enterprises Inc. in Los Angeles in 1982, he was already a member of the American Society of Interior Designers. During the next 23 consecutive years he served in some capacity as an officer of the Los Angeles chapter, including 20 years as Admissions Chairman, and received numerous Presidential Citation Awards for his contributions. When certification of Interior Designers by the State of California was introduced in 1982, he was one of the first designers to be certified.
